

PERRENIAL NAMES	Sun needs	ZONES		Bloom Time

Full sun, Partial sun, shade			Attracts; butterflies, hummingbirds, fragrant, cut flower, wildlife, birds
			Description;
Achillea 'Anthea'  		4 - 8	(Yarrow) Light yellow flower clusters, long serrated silver leaves.	May - July
Aconitum (Monkshood) 	 	3 - 9	Beautiful deep blue flowers, sap is poisonous.	Aug. - Sept.
Alcea (Hollyhock)   		2 - 8	Sturdy spikes, flowers open from bottom up, deeply lobed foliage, rapid grower.	June - August
Anchusa (Blue Angel)	 	9 - 11	This is the summer forget-me-not with vivid blue flowers, bushy plant, drought tolerant	June - July
Anemone (Windflower) 	 	4 - 8	(Japanese Windflower) Glossy green foliage.	Aug. - Sept.
Aquilegia (columbine)   	 	3 - 9	variety of flower colors, most have green foliage.	May - June
Arabis (rock cress:)		3 - 7	Low growing, Gray-green in color, flowers are either white or pink.	April - May
Arenaria (Sandwort)			Compact moss-like, ground cover, great for rock beds.	May
Armeria (Thrift)		4 - 8	Tiny pink to white flower, grass-like dark green foliage, profuse bloomer.	March - Oct.
Artemisia (wormwood)		3 - 7	Insignificant flowers, soft foliage in compact mounds.	Non-flowering
Aruncus (Goatsbeard)	 	3 - 7	Long lived, flowers are star shaped bunched in feathery plumes.	June - July
Aster  	 	3 - 8	Flowers are all different shades, with green foliage.	Aug. - Oct.
Astilbe (False spirea) 		4 - 8	Tall with deep green foliage, flowers vary.	Aug. - Oct.
Astrantia	 	3 - 9	herbaceous plant with green foliage, crimson green flowers.	June - July
Aubrieta (false rockcress)		4 - 7	Best used in rock gardens or borders. Flowers are a variety of colors.	April - May
Baptisia (false indigo) 	 	3 - 8	Blue - green, delicate leaves, not a rapid grower.	June
Belamcanda Chinensis (blackberry lily, leopard lily)		5 - 9	has sword like leaves ending in a tip, flowers are bright colors.	July - Aug.
Bellis (English Daisy)		4 - 8	Low growing, dark green foliage,	May - June
Bergenia (pig squeak) 	  	3 - 8	Red flower clusters, leathery cabbage-like foliage.	May - June
Buddleia (butterfly bush)  		5 - 9	Here in the north they have a vigorous erect habit, flower colors purple, white, lav.	July - Aug.
Campanula (Bellflower) 		4 - 7	excellent plant for center of garden, they have a mounded appearance when not in bloom	June
Catanache (Cupids Dart) 		4 - 8	flowers are single in clusters, can be used in dry flower arrangements,	July - Aug.

Centaurea (Bachelor button)	  	3 - 8	feathery blue flowers, easy growing	June
Centranthus (Jupiters Beard)		5 - 8	fast growing, blue or grey-green glossy foliage.	June - Oct.
Cerastium (snow in summer)		3 - 7	white flower with yellow center, wooly gray foliage, rapid grower.	May - June
Coreopsis (tickseed)	 	4 - 9	from single to dbl. golden yellow flowers, plant spreads about 12 to 16".	June - July
Crocoshmia	 	5 - 9	Brilliant flame red flowers in rows, broad sword-like foliage, wiry arched stems.	June - July
Delosperma (ice plant)		5 - 9	Perfectly rounded 2" flower, very thin petals, fleshy green finely textured foliage.	May - Oct.
Delphinium	  	3 - 7	Large variety of species.	June - Sept.
Delosperm sutherlandii (ice plant)		6 - 9	daisy like flower in mid summer.	July - Aug.
Dianthus (sweet william)	 	4 - 9	Grow 12 - 20" tall, 14 - 20" wide, with deep green foliage.	May - June
Dianthus (carnation/pink)	  	3 - 9	make perfect borders, where a simitrailing plant is wanted.	June - July
Dicentra (bleeding heart)	 	3 - 9	arching wands of heart-shaped flowers, foliage dies back mid or late summer.	May - July
Digitalis (foxglove)	 	4 - 9	deep rose-pink flowers w/buff overcast hang in clusters, large green oblong leaves, rapid grower.	May - June
Doronicum (Leopard Bane)	 	4 - 7	flowers are single to simidouble daisylike form, deep green kidney shaped foliage.	April - May
Echinacea (coneflower)	  	3 - 8	uniform branching plant, flowers of vivid colors, leaves are deep green.	July - Sept.
Euphorbia (spurge)		5 - 9	flowers are unnoticed because of their nondescript color, grows in clumps.	May - June
Fallopia (milk boy)		5 - 9	vine of varigated leaves, aggressive	April - Oct.
Gaillardia (blanket flower)	 	3 - 10	flowers are daisylike in habit, plants are mounded, although some varieties can be upright.	June - Sept.
Galium (sweet woodruff)		4 - 8	low growing and spreading, with white blooms.	June - July
Gaura (wandflower)		5 - 9	Four pedal bright pink or white flower, finely textured dark green foliage.	July - Oct.
Geranium (Cransbill)	 	4 - 8	Brilliant flowers, deeply cut green foliage.	July - Sept.
Geum (avens)	 	5 - 7	Flowers are red or yellow, mass of foliage from which the flower stems develop	May - June
Gypsophilia (baby breath)	 	3 - 9	Double white flowers, thin green leaves, thick stems, vigorous.	June - Aug.
Helenium (sneezeweed)	 	4 - 8	Maroon flowers fade through shades of orange and deep yellow.	July - Nov.
Heliopsis (False sunflower)	 	3 - 9	long flowering period, stems grow erect, flowers are yellow, single to simidbl..	June - Sept.

Hemerocallis (Daylily)	 	 	3 - 9	Daylilies are a welcome addition to any garden with a variety of bold dramatic color.	June - Frost
Hesperis (dames rocket)			3 - 8	flowers sometimes have a scent, most noticed in the afternoon.	May - June
Heuchera (Coral Bells)	  	 	3 - 8	Dwarf, low mounds of dense foliage, elongated spirelike flowering stems.	June - July
Hibiscus		 	4 - 9	Dramatic and impressive in the midsummer garden, variety of colors.	July - Sept.
Hosta		 	3 - 9	King of the shade garden, brilliant foliage color.	July - Aug.
Liberis (candytuft)	 		3 - 9	Flat clusters of white flowers, compact green foliage.	May - June
Iris		 	4 - 8	Not long flowering, comes in a large variety of color.	May - June
Kniphofia (red hot poker)		 	6 - 10	Bright Orange-red to yellow spike-like flowers, gray-green grass-like foliage.	July - Sept.
Lamium (dead nettle)		 	3 - 8	upright habit growing no more than 12" tall in bloom,.	May - June
Lavandula (lavender)	  		5 - 9	Rich lavender flower spikes, grayish foliage.	June - Aug.
Leucanthemum (shasta daisy)			5 - 9	double or single flowers, on long sturdy stems.	June - Aug.
Lewisia (bitter root)		 	3 - 9	fleshy rosetta of tough evergreen leaves, star shaped flowers, drought tolerant once established.
Liatris (blazing star)	 		3 - 9	Rosy lavender wands open from bottom, narrow opposite leaves.	July - Aug.
Ligularia			4 - 9	Golden colored flower, long stemmed heart-shaped green foliage.	July - Aug.
Lilium (asiatic)		 	4 - 9	Pink or Red flowers, with green lance-like leaves.	June - Aug.
Linum (flax)	  		4 - 8	flowers are single, lasting only a day then are replaced with new flowers, foliage is thin dark green.	June
Lobelia (cardinal flower)		 	6 - 9	Bright scarlet flower spikes, long stems, reddish green foliage.	June - Sept.
Lupinus (lupine)		 	4 - 8	Large spiked flowers, soft green foliage.	June - July
Lynchis (campion)				Attractive wooly plant with dense leafy shoots	June - Aug.
Lysimachia		 	3 - 8
Malva (hollyhock mallow)			4 - 8	flower is rose-pink, habit is upright, foliage is deep green.	June - July
Monarda (bee balm)	  	 	4 - 9	flower color varies, the foliage is simple in appearance, fragrant when crushed.	June - Aug.
Myosotis (forget-me-not)			5 - 8	low growing plant, dotted with flowers in light blue to midblue, foliage somewhat hairy and course.	May - June
Nepta				fragerant dark green foliage	July - Sept.

Oenothera (evening primrose) 	 	3 - 8	saucer-shaped flower, small dark green lanceolate leaves.	June - Aug.
Papaver (poppy)		3 - 7	most flowers are of a pink color, rough textured dark green foliage.	May - July
Penstemon (beard tongue)  		3 - 8	flowers are upright and generally scarlet colored, foliage is shiny green.	July - Aug.
Phlox, creeping 		2 - 9	excellent ground cover, with needle-like dark green foliage, flowers in pink, blue & white.	April - May
Phlox, garden   		4 - 8	These varieties come in all different colors, foliage is dark green.	July - Sept.
Physalis (chinese lantern) 		3 - 8	bright orange papery husk appears in the fall, erect growing with no branching.	June - July
Physostegia (obedient plant)  	 	2 - 9	Deep pink flowers, narrow sharp toothed foliage, tall stems.	July - Sept.
Platycodon (balloon flwr) 	 	3 - 8	Balloom-like buds that will eventually split open.	July - Aug.
Polemonium (jacobs ladder) 	 	3 - 7	Upright habit, has alternate leaves arranged like ladder, single flower light or pale blue.	June - July
Potentilla		5 - 7	foliage is strawberry-like, with flowers of coral or salmon with dark ruby-red center.	June - July
Primula (primrose)	 	3 - 8	flowers are bright colors, most have large eyes of contrasting color.	April - Sept.
Pulmonaria (lungwort)  	 	3 - 9	Bright Bell-shaped flowers, green foliage	April - May
Pulsatilla Vulgaris (pasque flwr)		5 - 8	spring flowering before leaves emerge, soft fern-like foliage.	April - May
Pyrethrum (painted daisy)		4 - 9	small daisy flower, ferny grey-green foliage, great for rock gardens.	June - Aug.
Rudbeckia (Blk. eye susan)  	 	4 - 10	Sturdy upright habit, daisy-like flower.	July - Sept.
Sagina	 	4 - 7	Low growing mosslike, single white flowers borne aloft on 1" stalks. Treat as short-lived perennial.	June - July
Salvia (meadow sage)   		3 - 8	Upright bushy habit, light green to dark green foliage.	May - June
Santolina (lavender cotton) 		6 - 8	gray-green finely divided foliage, golden yellow flowers.	Aug. - Sept.
Saponaria (soapwort)		3 - 8	Clusters of single 1" flowers in large clusters, long slender glossy green foliage.	June - Oct.
Scabiosa (pincushion flwr)		3 - 9	erect-growing with long linear basal leaves that arch toward the ground, flowers open on long stalks.	June
Sedum (stonecrop) 		3 - 9	excellent ground cover, foliage is dark green, single blooms often atop reddish tinged flower stem.	July - Aug.
Sempervivum (Hen & Chicks)		4 - 8	succulent with fleshy leaves tightly clustered in rosettes, flowers are starlike in appearance.	June - Aug.
Stachys (lambsear)	 	4 - 10	Velvety soft silvery green foliage, though listed as non-flowering, flower stalks occasionally shoot-up.	June - Aug.
Stokesia (stokes aster)  		5 - 9	flowers powder blue to deep violet-purple, foliage is deep green.	June - Sept.

Tanacetum (painted daisy)		4 - 9	flowers are pastel in color, fernlike foliage.	May - June
Tirella (foam flwr)		4 - 8	grows over and around just about anything, leaves are heart shaped, masses of tiny white flowers.	April - May
Tradescantia (spiderwort)		3 - 9	true blue, grape, or purple flowers, foliage is green.	June - Sept.
Trollius (globe flwr.)		3 - 7	flowers are bowl shaped, dark green foliage, slow grower.	May - July
Veronica (speedwell)		4 - 8	bears blue flowers on basal branching plants, flowers develop on upright spikes.	June - July
Viola (violet)		6 - 8	free-flowering in tricolor shades of purple, white, & yellow, low growing heart shaped leaves.	May - Sept.